Licensing Objectives

Describe the steps you intend to take to promote the four licensing objectives:

a) General - all four licensing objectives (b, c, d and e) (please read guidance note 10)

The takeaway will be operated in a responsible manner to promote all four licensing objectives at all times. Management and staff are committed to maintaining a safe, lawful, and well-managed premises. All staff will be trained in their responsibilities under the Licensing Act 2003 and any licence conditions relevant to the premises. A responsible manager will be on duty during trading hours to oversee the operation of the business and ensure compliance with licensing requirements. Staff training records will be maintained and refreshed regularly. The premises will operate effective management procedures to minimise risks to customers, staff, and the local community. The premises will maintain good communication with the police, local authority, and other responsible authorities where necessary. Any complaints from local residents or neighbouring businesses will be recorded, investigated, and addressed promptly. The premises will be kept clean, well maintained, and operated in a way that minimises disturbance to nearby residents and businesses. All licence conditions and relevant legal requirements will be reviewed regularly to ensure ongoing compliance.

b) The prevention of crime and disorder *

The premises will take all reasonable steps to prevent crime and disorder by implementing the following measures: A

Licensing Objectives

	CCTV system will be installed and maintained, covering all public areas, entrances, and exits. Recordings will be retained for a minimum of 28 days and made available to the Metropolitan Police or authorised officers upon request. Sufficient trained staff will be on duty during trading hours to supervise the premises and respond to any incidents. All staff will receive training on preventing crime and disorder, dealing with challenging behaviour, and reporting incidents. Refresher training will be provided periodically. An incident log will be maintained to record any incidents of crime, disorder, or anti-social behaviour and will be made available for inspection by authorised officers upon request. The premises will operate a zero-tolerance policy towards violence, threatening behaviour, and anti-social behaviour. Any customers behaving in this manner will be asked to leave, and the police will be contacted where necessary. Management will work closely with the Metropolitan Police and the London Borough of Croydon Licensing Authority to address any issues that may arise. Customers will be encouraged to leave the premises quietly and respectfully to minimise any disturbance to neighbouring residents and businesses. The premises will be managed to ensure that queues and customer waiting areas are supervised to reduce the risk of disorder or nuisance outside the premises.
c) Public safety *	The premises will be operated in a manner that ensures the safety of customers, staff, and visitors. The following measures will be implemented to promote public safety: The premises will comply with all relevant fire safety and health and safety legislation. Fire detection and firefighting equipment will be installed, maintained, and serviced regularly, with clearly marked emergency exits kept free from obstruction at all times. Staff will receive training in fire safety, emergency procedures, first aid awareness, and the safe operation of equipment. The premises will be kept clean, well lit, and maintained in a safe condition, with regular inspections carried out to identify and address any hazards. Electrical and gas installations and catering equipment will be inspected and maintained by suitably qualified persons in accordance with legal requirements. A suitably stocked first aid kit will be kept on the premises and be readily available for use. Customer numbers within the premises will be managed to avoid overcrowding, particularly during busy periods. Floors, entrances, and exits will be kept free from slip and trip hazards, and any spillages will be cleaned promptly. Appropriate public liability insurance will be maintained, and risk assessments will be reviewed regularly to ensure the continued safety of staff and customers.
d) The prevention of public nuisance *	The premises will be managed to minimise any nuisance to local residents and neighbouring businesses. The following measures will be implemented to promote the prevention of public nuisance: Clear notices will be displayed asking customers to leave the premises quietly and to respect nearby residents and businesses. Staff will monitor customer behaviour, particularly during busy periods and at closing time, to discourage noise and anti-social behaviour. Queues outside the premises will be managed to minimise obstruction, noise, and disturbance. Deliveries and collections will be managed efficiently to reduce vehicle congestion and unnecessary engine idling outside the premises. Waste will be stored securely and disposed of regularly. Refuse and recycling collections will take place at appropriate times to minimise disturbance. The area immediately outside the premises will be checked regularly and kept free from litter associated with the business. Any extraction and ventilation equipment will be properly installed, maintained, and operated to minimise cooking odours and noise. Doors and windows will be kept closed where practicable, except for access and egress, to reduce the escape of noise. Management will respond promptly to any complaints from local residents or the local authority and take appropriate action to resolve any issues.

e) The protection of children from harm *	The premises will take appropriate steps to protect children from harm and provide a safe environment for all customers. The following measures will be implemented: The premises will be well lit, clean, and maintained in a safe condition at all times. CCTV will be in operation to provide a safe environment for customers, staff, and visitors. All staff will receive appropriate training to recognise and respond to any safeguarding concerns involving children and young people. Any incidents involving children or young people will be recorded and, where appropriate, reported to the relevant authorities. Staff will remain vigilant and will take appropriate action if they believe a child or young person may be at risk. The premises will not permit anti-social behaviour or any activity that may place children or young people at risk. Management will cooperate with the Metropolitan Police and the London Borough of Croydon where necessary to help safeguard children and young people.
